Repair Land * Grow Food * Build Community

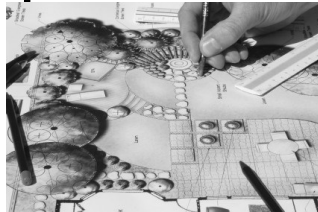

Introduction to Permaculture Workshop

Sunday, March 22nd 1:00 - 3:00 pm
Morinville Community Library

Cost: Entry fee is a donation of $20 to $50

This is a library fundraiser and the library will receive 10% of proceeds to support library programs. Register and pay at the Library Front Desk

In this 2 hour workshop Permaculture Teacher and Designer Kenton Zerbin will provide you with inspiration and ideas for making an abundant garden, an efficient home and a thriving community. This is a perfect introduction for those who want to start growing their own food, those who want to improve their home or garden, and those who want to learn how humanity can be a regenerative force on this planet. Come and learn about this growing movement that has national governments, world renown scientists and backyard gardeners alike optimistic and creating change on the ground.

Kenton Zerbin is a teacher, designer and consultant who EMPOWERS OTHERS to repair degraded landscapes, grow food and build community.
