

Ma-Me-O Days Amazing Race Information Sheet

The Amazing Race is a game involving strategy, skill, accuracy and speed. Our goal is to make it fun for everyone, create a level playing field, and include as many participants as possible. We ascribe to good sportsmanship and sincere competitiveness. Rules and guidelines are for everyone.

1. There is no cost to play.
2. Each team must have an identifying name on their registration form.
3. Teams no less than 3 and no more than 6 people – 2 people over 12 yrs. old and 1 adult over 18 if any contestant is under age 6. All team members must participate in at least one venue.
4. People under 18 require their parents or guardians signature – as per registration form.
5. Registration is at Jubilee Park on Race Day July 21, 2018 between 12:30 and 1:45.
6. All contestants must be on foot except for non-participating children in strollers. Those under 6 years may use trikes, scooters, or bikes. Other equipment for those who are disabled is welcome. For safety's sake – no cars or any other motorized vehicles except for motorized scooters for the disabled.

- 7. Every team will randomly select their starting leg of the race at registration and open their route information at the same time with a SHOTGUN START AT 2:00 p.m.
8. This is a RACE! There are no points given out, the first team to the finish is the WINNER! All Challenge Events will close at 4:00.
9. All teams must be present at the start of the race, each venue and the finish line and keep their route information card as well as their challenge card to be handed in at the finish line.
10. The coordinators at each venue will be able to make adjustments to accommodate unforeseen situations as needed. If necessary, the race coordinator will make the final decision.
11. Prizes will be presented at the Ma-Me-O Beach Community Hall at 6:00 p.m. during the Family BBQ and dance.
