Unselfish and noble actions are the most radiant pages in the biography of souls.

- David Thomas

If you think you could help support some activities that would benefit your community, please let us know.

Volunteers can assist with:

- returning book to shelves
- pulling holds
- setting up for events
- organizing events
- telling stories
- helping with craft activities
- assist with reading programs
- join the Friends of the Library

Why volunteer?

- gain valuable experience for your resume
- stay informed about library programs
- learn more about your community library
- be the first to see new additions to the collection
