Attention: Jordan Ruegg
Secretary, Subdivision and Development Appeal Board

Dear Sir:

Re: Appeal of Development Permit Application #004-20

I am writing on behalf of the Town of St. Paul (the "Town").

The SDAB Decision dated April 14, 2020, stated that due to the operation of Ministerial Order No. MSD: 022/20, the deadline for filing and serving an application for permission to appeal the SDAB Decision would not expire until October 1, 2020.

However, on April 17, 2020, the Minister of Municipal Affairs issued a replacement Ministerial Order (MAG: 036/20). The effect of the replacement Ministerial Order is that the 30 day timeline for filing and serving an application for permission to appeal the SDAB Decision begins on April 17, 2020, which is the date of the replacement Ministerial Order. The 30 day permission to appeal period expires on Sunday, May 17, 2020, and Monday, May 18, 2020 is a statutory holiday (Victoria Day); as a result, Tuesday, May 19, 2020 is the last day for filing and serving an application for permission to appeal with the Court of Appeal, in accordance with s. 688(2) of the Municipal Government Act.

This is the Town's interpretation of the applicable permission to appeal period, however if any of the participants in the appeal process have questions or concerns regarding the permission to appeal process, or the effect of the Ministerial Orders referred to in this letter and how they impact your rights, you are encouraged to seek independent legal advice.
