Viking Farm - invites you to consider joining our CSA – Community Shared Agriculture. Shared Farming is a successful alternative to conventional food access. It's a partnership between consumer and producer. You, the consumer, may purchase a share each spring which entitles you to receive fresh, naturally grown seasonal fruits and vegetables. The season is from late June to late October. A full share will easily feed a family of four with a basket of fresh produce each week. A half share will fulfill a couple's or 2 single people's needs. For more details about nutritious, delicious, locally grown foods available to you please call:

Brian Rozmahel, 780-385-5570 cell, 780-336-2160 home or my numbers below.
