Memory Rose Garden

Millet

Proud to be

Millet Memorial Rose Garden Policy 21

POLICY STATEMENT:

The Millet memorable Rose Garden was the inspiration of Bernice Knight, one of the founders of the garden. She wanted to plant a rose in memory of her mother and thought perhaps there were others in the community who wanted to do the same.

She visited all the groups and organizations in Millet and explained her idea. From her idea the Rose Garden was designed.

Memorial Sign

The sign has the names of the loved ones who purchased the plant or plants and the name of the person in memory of.

Roses

Roses are purchased and planted in memory.

Policy

That the Millet Memorable Rose Garden be maintained by Millet in Bloom.

That the cost of $40.00 for each rose bush including the name(s) on the sign in memory remain until such time as this cost is no longer feasible.

That the sign be annually updated.

That rose bushes continue to be planted on behalf of loved ones.

That Millet in Bloom will endeavor to purchase the more hardy varieties, more compatible to our climate.

That a record be kept of the names on the sign and also the variety of roses that have been and will be purchased.

That the birdbath (part of the Garden) be maintained by the volunteer who placed it there. Should this no longer be feasible, the birdbath will be removed.

That the Millet Memorable Rose Garden Bank account be kept open to use for purchase of roses and any donations to the garden.

That should Highway 2A widen and the garden need to be re-located, the site selection of the new garden be a partnership decision of The Council, Parks Department and Millet in Bloom.
